12 NEW MEMBERS

CONSTANT ADDITIONS TO COMMERCIAL ASSOCIATION.

Treasurer's Report Showing $294 on Hand Received—Bills Amounting to $91. Referred to the Finance Committee—List of Names of People Asking for Literature Concerning Umatilla County Referred to Echo Commercial Club—Receipts From Games Increase.

The Commercial Association last night admitted 12 new members, received the October report of the treasurer, showing $294 cash on hand, referred bills amounting to $91 to the finance committee, turned down the proposition to pay the expenses of one delegate to the National Irrigation Congress at El Paso, and referred a list of names of intending settlers to the Echo Commercial Club to be furnished by that organization with literature concerning Umatilla county.

A fair attendance was present at the regular monthly meeting of the Commercial Association last evening, and very little outside of routine business was transacted.

The following new members were admitted: R. E. Tarbett, Ben P. Campbell, R. F. Winslow, Lot Livermore, Alex Manning, H. C. Willis, H. W. Donohue, G. M. Rowland, Charles Hamilton, J. R. Stott, S. J. Hubbard and Wood Pasley.

The October report of the treasurer was received and referred to the finance committee. The report showed a balance of cash on hand amounting to $294, with bills amounting to $91 to be paid.

Letters begging the association for literature covering Umatilla county, were received from numerous intending settlers; one letter from a real estate firm in Missouri asking for an exhibit of Oregon products, being referred to C. C. Berkeley, and a list of something over 100 names being referred to H. C. Willis, of the Echo Commercial Club, to be supplied with literature by that organization.

The proposition to pay the train fare of one delegate from the association to the El Paso Irrigation Congress was turned down and it was suggested that a public subscription be circulated to raise funds for that purpose.

The association is in a flourishing condition, the receipts from games, cigars, billiard and pool tables showing a large increase.

NEW DIPPING VATS.

Echo Stockmen Complete New Plant and Are Ready for Business.

Tomorrow cattle dipping will begin at the new vats just constructed near Echo by an association of stockmen composed of the following: Fred Andrews, Joe Cunha, Tom Smith, Ben McCulloch and J. H. Hickenbotham.

The plant is up-to-date in every respect, having a boiler in which to heat the dipping solution and other modern appliances. The capacity of the vat is 90 head per hour and all the cattle belonging to members of the association will be dipped there.

Dr. E. N. Hutchinson, of Portland, and Colonel R. C. Judson, of the O. R. & N., are expected to be present to witness the dipping.

A member of the firm of Burns Brothers, photographers, of this city, will photograph the dipping scene in its different stages.

BUSHEE "STAYED."

Bucking Broncho Gives Exhibition on Main and Water Streets.

A bucking broncho last evening vainly attempting to unseat his rider, gave persons at Main and Water streets the idea that a portion of Buffalo Bill's Wild West show had reached town. Glen Bushee, night clerk at the Hotel Pendleton, who breaks horses as a pastime, figured as the hero in the bucking contest.

Bushee mounted a black horse for the purpose of taking a ride, but he had no more than vaulted into the saddle before the animal got to work. It was no play with the mad steed, but it's rider "stayed" and there was no leather pulling either. Finally the horse gave up the effort as a bad job and trotted doggedly down the street when his master urged him forward.

POOR FARM IMPROVEMENTS.

New Hay and Implement Barn Just Completed—Ten Inmates Now at the Farm.

Superintendent Joseph McDill, of the county poor farm, has just completed a hay and farm implement barn at the farm, which will enable him to shelter nearly all the stock and farm implements. The barn is 40x56, and was built by Fred Eggerth.

There are now 16 inmates at the farm, all in fair health and all well satisfied with the pleasant surroundings prepared for them by the county.

The little herd of county stock is gradually increasing. There are now about 25 hogs, seven head of cattle and six horses on the farm.

BUS TEAM RUNAWAY.

Narrow Escape of Twelve Pupils of St. Joseph's Academy.

But for the presence of mind of Patrick Scheurte, 12 little children on their way to St. Joseph's Academy this morning in a bus, might have met with death or serious injury. As it was, they took an exciting ride down the steep incline of South Main street behind the driverless horses. Scheurte, who formerly drove the the animals by rushing in front of them with a scantling.

The St. Joseph bus each morning gathers a load of the small children and takes them to school. The new driver this morning left his team standing at the top of the Main street hill. The horses took fright and started on their mad race down the steep grade before he could reach them.

Aside from fright, the dozen children in the vehicle were none the worse for their exciting ride and were later taken on to school.

WESTON MOUNTAIN HAY.

Sim J. Culley Handles Most of the Product of That District.

Sim J. Culley of Weston, was in Pendleton last night. Mr. Culley is engaged in the grocery business and is one of the heaviest handlers of hay in the county. Almost every bale of timothy hay raised on the rich meadows of Weston mountain, passes through Mr. Culley's hands to reach the outside market.

During the summer he has shipped several trainloads of choice hay for use by the government. Heretofore most of the Weston mountain hay, designed for shipment, was loaded at Athena and there is much rivalry between these two flourishing foothill towns to secure the mountain trade.

NYE THE HYPNOTIST.

Will Give a Demonstration at the Frazer Tonight.

Thomas Nye, the hypnotist, will appear at the Frazer this evening. Mr. Nye's ability as a clever performer is well known in Pendleton. He has appeared before local audiences upon several occasions, and never fails to please. He does not follow hypnotism as a profession. He has been visiting his parents in this city for the past two months, and before returning to work has been urged to give a farewell demonstration of his powers.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon Nye made a thrilling drive blindfolded, down Main and Court streets and found an article secreted by the committee that accompanied him.

NIXON WITH WEIDEMANN.

R. J. Nixon, formerly manager of the Frazer theater and later manager and lessee of the Walla Walla theater, was in the city today as advance man for the Weidemann shows, which come to the Frazer on Tuesday, November 8, for a five nights' engagement with Saturday matinee. Mr. Nixon has been advance agent for the Weidemann shows since the sudden death of Jackson, the former advance man in La Grande last week. The company is meeting with phenomenal success in its tour of the Inland Empire and will present the following plays: "Michael Strogoff," "The Silver King," "Hazel Kirk," "The Old Limekiln," and "My Uncle From New York."

Real Estate Business.

"Pendleton dirt is flying," said E. T. Wade, of Wade & Son, real estate dealers, this morning. "Yesterday we sold and completed transfers to four dwelling houses and 19 city lots, and still have a large number of inquiries for homes and town property. It is one of the best years for the real estate business ever experienced in Pendleton. Many of the substantial farmers who have never lived in the city before are buying good homes and are moving in to take advantage of the excellent public and private schools of this city."

Suit for Divorce.

After a year of married life, W. H. George has brought action in the state circuit court for divorce from Alice I. George. The plaintiff alleges that his wife is of an insanely jealous disposition and accused him of unlawful relations with other women. The wife is at Albany, Or., and refuses to live with him.

Sixty Days for Larceny.

Sixty days in the county jail is the sentence of Charles Patrick, colored, found guilty in the justice court this morning of larceny. Patrick took a silver watch belonging to T. S. Johnson from the latter's vest, which was hanging in a saloon. Two witnesses gave testimony for the prosecution. The prisoner is a bootblack.

Another Architect.

F. A. Swingle has opened an office as an architect, in the rooms in the LaDow building, formerly occupied by the Modern School of Commerce. Mr. Swingle, who has followed carpentering and contracting here, is a graduate of a Connecticut technical school, prior to which he served an apprenticeship in architecture under T. I. Tracy of New York city.

Leased O. K. Feed Yard.

W. T. Boynton has leased the O. K. feed yard for a number of years and is now in charge. He will make improvements in the business and starts out with an encouraging patronage.

Commenced Seeding 2000 Acres.

W. P. Temple has begun seeding on his 2000-acre farm west of this city. Six drills are now working constantly. The ground is very dry yet, but it is thought that the grain will be safe.

DOUBLED IN PRICE

REALTY AROUND NYE IS NOT IN THE MARKET.

Fall Rains and Open Weather Have Grown a Splendid Range—Another Cattle Firm Which Believes in the Composite Beef Type—Four Miles of New Fencing and a Blacksmith Shop on One Farm—Fall Feeding Bees for Spring.

B. C. Reeder, of the firm of Reeder & Roumagoux of Nye, was in town yesterday. Mr. Reeder states that the abundance of rain and open weather has greatly stimulated the range and improved the condition of the stock, and correspondingly gladdened the stockman.

When asked whether anyone in the Nye country had sold out this fall Mr. Reeder replied that no one out there could be induced to sell out, as land values have doubled within the past year in that portion of the county, this statement applying more particularly to the range lands, which a year ago were held at an average figure of $4 per acre and cannot now be bought, except in exceptional cases, for $12 per acre.

Reeder & Roumagoux have 150 head of beef stock, 20 of which they are full feeding for the spring markets. All the beef cattle owned by this firm are mixed Shorthorn and Hereford, with the preference given to those showing a little preponderance of the Shorthorn. They believe in the composite, but also in the preponderance of the Shorthorn in some degree. The firm owns a registered Shorthorn bull 5 years old, and a registered Hereford bull 2 years old.

Reeder & Roumagoux are showing 300 acres of wheat for grain, and 60 acres of wheat for hay this fall. This year they cut 100 acres of wheat that averaged 30 bushels to the acre, and every bushel was of the finest quality. They also raised 700 bushels of oats that weighed 104 bushels to the sack.

The firm is building a blacksmith shop that will be fully equipped with the latest tools and appliances for SPLENDID LECTURE.

"From Hell's Gate to Golden Gate," by Colonel George French.

Colonel George French, commanding the Pacific province of the Salvation Army, who is to lecture in Hendricks' hall Friday night, will bring with him a thousand feet of moving pictures, illustrating the work of the organization, and scenes from the international congress. The music will be of an exceptionally pleasing nature.

Colonel French will talk of the doings of the army throughout the Pacific coast and the United States. He will tell of the meeting between General Booth and King Edward, and of the reception tendered the Salvationists by Queen Alexandra. The subject of the colonel's address is "From Hell Gate to Golden Gate."

Major Robert Dublin, commanding the Northwest division, will accompany Colonel French.

BUSINESS GOOD.

O. R. & N. Is Everywhere in Thrifty Condition.

J. P. O'Brien, general superintendent of Harriman lines in Oregon, is in Pendleton this afternoon. Mr. O'Brien is on a general tour of inspection of the road, and just arrived from Huntington. "I may return to Portland this evening," he said. "or I may go on to Walla Walla. I have not yet fully made up my mind." The superintendent declared he knew of no changes contemplated by the Harriman officials, and for the present knew of no special improvement work. "Everywhere," he continued, "I find the line in excellent condition. Business has been good."

Up to Its Claims.

The Thompson Street Methodist Episcopal church was crowded last night to its doors by those who attended the illustrated concert by Steel and Freeland. The pictures displayed are among the best ever seen in Pendleton. Fully 250 people were present at the entertainment, and every seat in the house was sold before 9 o'clock.

Overcoat Stolen.

Tom Atkins, a McKay creek farmer, yesterday drove up and hitched on the vacant lot south of the Maloney building. He left his overcoat, a new garment costing $29, on the seat. Three hours later, when he was ready to start home, the coat was missing, having been stolen in broad daylight.
